May the memory of the righteous be a blessing...

Book of Memory

Our tradition teaches that there are three levels of mourning: we mourn with tears, with silence, and with song. Memory accompanies each of us on our journey as we mourn those we love. Remembering their names, we tell their stories again and again. May the names of our beloved, inscribed in the pages of this Book of Memory, and the memories they evoke, be a source of comfort, strength, and inspiration to us all.

With blessing,

Rabbi James M. Bennett

Rabbi Andrea Goldstein, DMin

Cantor Seth P. Warner

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of darkness,

I fear no evil: for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou hast annointed my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days
of my life:

and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

El Maleh Rachamim

אל מלא רחמים, שוכן במרומים. המצא מנוחה נכונה תחת
כנפי השכינה, עם קדושים וטהורים כזהר הרקיע מזהירים
את נשמות יקירינו שהלכו לעולמם. בעל הרחמים יסתירם
בסתר כנפיו לעולמים. ויצרור בצרור החיים את נשמתם.
יי הוא נחלתם. וינוחו בשלום על משכבם. ונאמר אמן.

Merciful God, God Most High; Let there be perfect rest for the souls of our loved ones who have gone into eternity. May they find shelter in Your presence among the holy and pure whose light shines like the radiance of heaven. Compassionate God, hold them close to You forever. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life eternal. May they find a home in You. And may they rest in peace. Together we say: Amen.

Cantors of Shaare Emeth

Cantor Edward R. Fogel

A rabbi was once passing through a field where he saw a very old man planting an oak tree. "Why are you planting that tree?" he asked. "Surely you do not expect to live long enough to see the acorn grow into an oak tree?"

"Ah!" replied the old man, "My ancestors planted trees not for themselves but for us, in order that we might enjoy their shade or their fruit. I am doing likewise for those who will come after me."

An Infinity of Amens

*There are no words for this moment.
How are we to feel...
about the fires in the sand
and the black rivers of loss.
And how the enemy unleashed horrors on them.
There are not enough memorial candles...
for those forced to leave the hallways of their hearts.
Cut down, years before their time.
And now everything, everything, everything will remember that they were there.
There are no more tears,
for the nation-wide alerts,
for crimson stained pillowcases,
for a charred red tricycle,
for a desecrated woman,
a mother's anguish, a father's brokenness,
for the obliteration
of every single, dear, treasured
one-and-only, life—an extinguished universe.
There are no words.
Nevertheless, we gather now with wounded hearts,
and we lift each other up with weary arms,
and we pray with shattered spirits for shalom, peace.
Reeling...
Rising...
Reciting...
ancient prayers and finding our voice,
whispering an infinity of amens.*

- Rabbi Hanna Yerushalmi

"An Infinity of Amens" was written by Hanna Yerushalmi on 15 October 2023 in the aftermath of the massacres on Simchat Torah/ Atseret 5784.

Our Angels

for Yehuda Amichai
by Professor Howard K. Schwartz from his book, Midrashim

Our angels

Spend much of their time sleeping

In their dreams

They tear down the new houses by the sea

And build old ones

In their place.

No matter how long they may sleep

One hundred, two hundred years

Ten centuries is not too much

The first to wake up

Takes the torch that has been handed down

Adds a drop of oil to the lamp

Blesses the eternal light

And then recalls the name

Of every other angel

And one by one as they are remembered

They wake up.

For them as for us

There is nothing more beautiful

Than memory.

We Remember

Zecher tzadik livracha. May the memory of the righteous be for blessing.
